

SOUTH LYON FIRE DEPARTMENT

Manual of Procedures 116

COMPENSATION

Issued: December 20, 2013
 Revised: November 05, 2019
 Revised: July 1, 2021
 Approved: Chief Robert Vogel

I. Purpose

Establish the compensation package for SLFD employees below the rank of Deputy Chief.

II. PAY CLASSIFICATIONS

Pay classifications do not necessarily equal a separate rank. Each pay classification has a corresponding procedure providing detail on the classification such as qualifications, education and training, and essential job requirements. If the employee has prior experience to be at a higher classification, then at the fire chief’s discretion, the time limit for each classification below may be shortened.

Each pay classification may or may not be filled at sole discretion of fire chief.

Trainee I	$10.23
Trainee II (Firefighter I & II or EMT)	$11.02
Firefighter / EMT	$16.92
Engineer	$18.21
Aerial Apparatus Operator	$19.53
Sergeant	$20.68
Lieutenant/Training Officer	$23.42
Fire Inspector	$23.42
Captain	$24.71
Mechanic	$26.02

III. CHIEF OFFICERS

The Fire Chief is a full-time, salaried position as of July 1, 2020 with full city benefits per City of South Lyon Personal manual. The Deputy Chief shall be a part-time salaried position without benefits. The Caption position will be an hourly wage position without benefits however the position will have a 5 hour Officer stipend per bi-weekly pay period.

IV. ELIGIBILITY FOR PAY

Pay for employees who respond to a toned-out incident shall be paid a minimum of one hour and in increments of fifteen (15) minutes after. If multiple incidents occur during the same time period, employees shall receive only one rate of pay. At no time will employees be paid multiple, concurrent pay rates. An employee will receive pay for the full incident if they respond to the incident within 15 minutes from the time of tone and remain for the duration of the incident. Any employee who responds to an incident after 15 minutes but before 30 minutes from the time of tone shall sign in at their arrival time and be paid from that time until the end of the incident and will receive credit for the incident. Any employee that responds to an incident lasting longer that 1 hour may sign in at their arrival time and will receive run credit and pay from their sign in time. If an employee responds to an incident lasting 1 hour or less greater than 30 minutes from the tone time, they will receive pay from their sign in time. Run credit will not be received. Run credit may be given from the officer in charge on a case-by-case basis. For incidents lasting less than 1 hour, the officer in charge (highest ranking) may keep staff up to 1 hour from the tone time to complete the report, training, station maintenance, cleaning, or any other tasks deemed necessary by the officer in charge. Staff may sign out with officer permission. This should not be considered a routine practice. Signing out prior to being on the incident for 30 minutes will result in the loss of run credit for that incident.

All other paid activities shall be in fifteen-minute increments with no minimum. Employees will be paid for conducting official fire department business including but not limited to: day shift, hydrant inspections/painting, station maintenance/cleaning, apparatus maintenance/cleaning, public fire education/community relations events, approved training, and fire inspections. For non-incidents, employees will be paid to the nearest quarter hour increment.

Examples

- Station maintenance lasting thirty (30) minutes shall be paid .5 hours
- Public education lasting one (1) hours and ten (10) minutes shall be paid 1.25 hours

All firefighters must receive authorization from a fire officer prior to conducting a paid activity.

Employees shall make their set hourly pay while conducting assigned, scheduled, official department business, or other related activities. Regardless of the function they are performing or how many incidents the department receives during a given time, employees shall not be paid for multiple functions/incidents during the same time period.

A pay sheet must be completed for all activities that employees are requesting payment. Hours shall be documented using military time only. Original pay sheets shall be printed on green paper to distinguish them for record keeping purposes. Upon completion, the pay sheet shall be placed into the drop box outside of the radio room.

If some personnel are working beyond one hour, e.g., providing a driver for HVA, while other personnel are released from the station, those personnel leaving at the one (1) hour mark shall write the time they signed out in the "Time Out" column of the pay sheet. The pay sheet shall be left out until the last employee from the incident returns to the station and has completed all necessary reports and clean-up activities. The "End Time" shall be the time that the last employee signed out. Personnel shall not complete an additional pay sheet for driving HVA rigs.

All pay sheets must be submitted within the pay period during which the time was worked. All pay sheets must indicate the officer in charge (incidents) or officer authorizing the paid activity. Failure to document the officer in charge or authorizing officer will result in forfeiture of pay for that event.
